Total Inmate on Inmate Assaults Years 1999- 2002

From 1999 to 2002, there has been a decline of 80% in inmate on inmate assaults.

Note: Under the Lorton Regulations Approval Act of 1982, an inmate on inmate assault is defined as any prisoner who willfully causes serious bodily injury to any person; or shoots, stabs, or cuts another person, or willfully causes bodily injury to another person with a weapon or by any means. These data were extracted from Extraordinary Occurrence Reports, Significant Incident Reports and Monthly Activity Reports.
